

MISCHIEF
THE MOUSE

By Nicole Holman

Copyright © 2013 Nicole Holman

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means - electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording or any other - except for brief quotations in reviews, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

This book is dedicated to my mischievous little sister, Lindsey.

In a land far away, there's a hill and a house. And inside that house lives Mischief the Mouse.

Mischief the Mouse, loves to make a mess. He never cleans or tidies up and gives his mother stress.

You can say that Mischief, is rather awfully lazy. He sleeps all day and sleeps
all night and never plays with Maisie.

Instead he plays a bunch of pranks that make his father mad. His family begs and pleads for him to give up being bad.

When Mischief the Mouse
has done all that he could,
he sees that he makes others happy only when he's good.

He cleans his room and plays with Maisie. A good mouse he will stay...

...until the sun comes up again and starts a brand new day.

